PEEPO AND THE MAGIC TALISMAN: A SPIDER'S TALE

After his father's untimely death, Peepo gets into serious trouble at home and school. For his safety, his mother takes him to live with his grandmother. Sensing his loneliness, his grandmother gives him a family heirloom, a Magic Talisman, but his behavior does not improve. Peepo runs away and gets lost in Limbo, an enchanted forest inhabited by unearthly creatures ruled by a beautiful sorceress, La Diabliesse. Peepo calls upon the Talisman's magic, summoning the Spirit of Asafetida, alerting all of Limbo to his presence.

PEEPO AND THE MAGIC TALISMAN; LOST IN LIMBO or A TALE OF TWO WITCHES

Peepo calls upon the Talisman a second time summoning Bush Spirits. They warn him that he is in grave danger and only the Immortelles have the power to save him. Two witches, known as Soucouyons, jealous of La Diabliesse beauty and power, enlist a Douen, an imp-like creature, to steal the Talisman. But when the Douen overhears the Soucouyons plotting their evil intentions, she offers to help Peepo on his quest.

PEEPO AND THE MAGIC TALISMAN: THE DOUEN'S TALE

When Peepo follows the Douen through a dangerous labyrinth to a secret cave deep inside Limbo, he discovers ancient writings on the walls resembling the symbols on his Talisman. As he begins to translate, a fearsome Lagohoo bursts into the cave and captures the Douen as well as the Talisman. Feeling all is lost, Peepo despairs until Spider, the narrator, realizing his role in this tangled web of confusion, reveals his true identity. Together, father and son, set out to reclaim the Talisman before all hell breaks loose.

THE MAGIC TALISMAN: THE BEGINNING

Once upon a time, a young sailor rescues a slave woman and her daughter from an evil plantation owner. The grateful woman creates a Magic Talisman to protect and guide him. Years later, when he narrowly escapes the clutches of a beautiful sorceress hell-bent on marrying him, the sorceress hurls a wicked curse on him but the Talisman protects him and the curse backfires, marring her beauty and imprisoning her in Limbo forever. Now, centuries later, she attempts to reverse the curse and unleash Evil on the world. But what she doesn't take into account is... Love conquers all.
